

Brighton Street Early Learning statement of commitment to child safety

Early Learning

Brighton Street Early Learning has a zero tolerance of child abuse, and all allegations and safety concerns will be treated very seriously and consistently with our robust policies and procedures.

Brighton Street Early Learning wants children to be safe, happy and empowered. We support and respect all children, as well as our staff and volunteers.

Brighton Street Early Learning is committed to the safety, participation and empowerment of all children.

Brighton Street Early Learning has legal and moral obligations to contact authorities when we are worried about a child's safety, which we follow rigorously.

Brighton Street Early Learning adheres and follows the eleven child safe standards and the reportable conduct scheme.

Brighton Street Early Learning is committed to preventing child abuse and identifying risks early, and removing and reducing these risks.

Brighton Street Early Learning has strict procedures of recruitment practises for all staff and volunteers.

Brighton Street Early Learning support and respect all children, as well as our staff and volunteers. We are committed to the cultural safety of Aboriginal children, the cultural safety of children from a culturally and/or linguistically diverse backgrounds, and to providing a safe environment for children with a disability.

Brighton Street Early Learning has specific policies, procedures and training in place that support our leadership team, staff and volunteers to achieve these commitments.

